Historical Note

The Culinary Workers Union Local 226, the largest local union of UNITE HERE (the Union of Needletrades, Industrial, and Textile Employees and Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees), is located in Las Vegas, Nevada and represents over 55,000 hotel, food service, and hospitality workers in Southern Nevada. The Culinary Union, in Las Vegas, was founded in 1938 soon after the passage of the federal National Labor Relations Act. In 1954, union members elected Al Bramlet as Secretary-Treasurer in Las Vegas, and under his leadership the union grew from 1,000 members to 16,000 members by the time of his death in 1977. Bramlet actively recruited African American workers from Alabama, Mississippi, and Arkansas, diversifying both the Culinary Union and the work force of Nevada's hospitality industry. The Culinary Union and the casinos of Las Vegas had a symbiotic relationship under Bramlet's leadership.

In 1967 and 1969, Nevada legislature passed two corporate gaming acts that allowed public corporations to own and operate casinos. These laws changed not only the gaming industry but the labor union strategies and relationships between workers and casino management.

During the 1970s and 1980s, the Culinary Union adapted to the new corporate ownership of Las Vegas casinos. The Culinary Union exercised their right to strike in 1976, joining the Bartenders and Musicians Unions in a seventeen-day strike against fifteen hotels that refused to sign new union contracts. This economically devastating and violent strike ended in compromise with new contracts for Culinary Union workers. The conflicted relationship between the Culinary Union and casinos resulted in another strike in 1984. The Culinary Union walked out against multiple Nevada Resort Association (NRA) properties in a strike that lasted two months. Police arrested over 900 strikers over the course of the strike and six hotels refused to sign contracts.

After the unsuccessful 1984 strike the Culinary Union reorganized and elected new leadership. The union organization shifted from top-down to rank-and-file leadership, greatly democratizing the union of nearly 18,000 workers. Union members elected Jim Arnold as Secretary-Treasurer in 1987. Arnold, along with union President Hattie Canty, successfully negotiated numerous bargaining agreements with Las Vegas Strip and Downtown hotels and casinos in the late 1980s and 1990s. In 1991, Culinary Union members began a strike on the Frontier Hotel after the owners removed significant benefits from worker contracts. The Frontier Strike became one of the longest lasting strikes in United States history, ending in 1998 after the Elardi family sold the Frontier Hotel to Phil Ruffin, who quickly signed a union contract.

In recent years, the Culinary Union focused on building relationships and contracts that mutually benefitted both worker and corporation. The Culinary Union also established a Culinary Training Center, the Citizenship Project, and the Housing Trust Fund. These projects help workers learn new skills, gain U.S. citizenship, and purchase homes. The Culinary Union's endorsement of political candidates is also significant. In 2008, Las Vegas hosted the 2008 Democratic Caucus, where the Culinary Union, on behalf of UNITE HERE, became the first major union to endorse eventual President Barack Obama. As of 2014, union membership reached 55,000 members.

Chronology
1938	Culinary Workers Union Local 226 is founded.
1954	Culinary Union members elect Al Bramlet as the Secretary-Treasurer.
1965	Nevada Civil Rights Act is passed.

	Nevada Resort Association (NRA) is established.
1967, 1969	Nevada Corporate Gaming Acts are passed.
1971	NRA, multiple hotels, and the Culinary Union voluntarily agree to sign a consent decree that orders all resort industry employers to hire African Americans for 12% of all hotel casino jobs.
1976, March	Culinary Union joins the Musicians, Stagehands, and Bartenders unions in a strike against fifteen hotels. After seventeen days, an agreement is reached which ends the economically devastating 1976 strike.
1984	Casino owners refuse the Culinary Union's request for a new health insurance plan and nearly 18,000 workers walk out of hotels and casinos across the city. Police arrest over 900 strikers over the course of the strike. The 1984 strike lasts two months, and ends with six casinos refusing to sign union contracts.
1987	Culinary Union members elect Jim Arnold as the Secretary-Treasurer.
1989	Steve Wynn's Mirage opens with a union contract. The mega-casino needs thousands of workers and the union adapts to the change by expanding membership recruitment internationally.
1990	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Culinary Union members elect Hattie Canty as the first female African-American President of the Culinary Union. She is instrumental in negotiating for the Culinary Training Center.</li> <li>• Culinary and Bartenders unions successfully strike against Binion's Horseshoe Casino.</li> </ul>
1991	Culinary Union members walk out of the Frontier Hotel and start a strike after the owners remove significant benefits from worker contracts. The Culinary Union suspects the anti-union Elardi family of intimidation, unfair firings, and decreased wages. Bill Bennett, owner of Circus Circus and the Sahara Hotel, publicly supports the union by providing food for the strikers.

1993	The Culinary Union establishes the Culinary Training Center, later renamed the Culinary Academy of Las Vegas, with funds from collective bargaining agreements between several casinos and the Culinary and Bartenders unions.
1994	Las Vegas Metro police officers arrest over 500 members for demonstrating on MGM Grand's privatized sidewalks.
1998	The Frontier Strike ends after six years. The Elardis did not compromise with the Culinary Union and when Phil Ruffin purchases the hotel, he signs a union contract agreeing to rehire all protesting workers.
2001	The Culinary Union, along with other organizations, establishes the Citizenship Project to help union members study and prepare for the U.S. Citizenship exam.
2005	Steve Wynn opens the Wynn Las Vegas resort and agrees to an unprecedented ten year contract with the Culinary Union.
2007	A number of casino properties agree to sign a collective bargaining agreement that establishes the Housing Trust Fund.
2008	The Culinary Union, on behalf of UNITE HERE, is the first major labor union to endorse eventual President Barack Obama during the 2008 Nevada Democratic Caucus.
2012	The Culinary Union executive board appoints Geoconda Arguello-Kline as the first Latina Secretary-Treasurer to complete D. Taylor's term.
2014	Union membership reaches 55,000.

Demonstrations, 1987-2004

Physical Description: 19.54 Linear Feet (19 boxes and 3 folders in OS box 34)

Scope and Contents Note: The materials in the Demonstrations series contain photographic prints and negatives of various strikes, pickets, rallies, and marches that the members of the Las Vegas Culinary Workers Union Local 226 participated in from 1987 to 2004. Most prominently represented in this series is the Frontier Strike that lasted from 1991 to 1998. Materials contain photographic prints, photographic negatives, and a small number of slides.

Arrangement: Materials are arranged into two subseries:
I.A. The Frontier Strike, 1990-1998

I.B. Other demonstrations, 1987-2004

Frontier Strike, 1990-1998

Physical Description: 9.36 Linear Feet (9 boxes and 2 folders in OS box 34)

Scope and Contents Note: Photographs depict the Las Vegas Culinary Workers Union Local 226's well-known Frontier Strike from 1990 until it ended in 1998. Materials contain photographic prints, photographic negatives, and a small number of slides.

Arrangement: The material within the Frontier Strike subseries is in chronological order. Some folders have similar titles, but represent distinct sets created by the Culinary Union. Each distinct set of photographs are differentiated with an alphabetic label. These photographs were not further identified and were kept in original order. Each file contains multiple images.

Other Demonstrations and Strikes, 1987-2004

Physical Description: 10.18 Linear Feet (10 boxes and 1 folder in OS box 34)

Scope and Contents Note: Materials document Las Vegas Culinary Workers Union strikes, pickets, marches, parades, rallies, and protests other than the Frontier Strike. This includes the Reynolds Electrical and Engineering Company (REECO) Strike, Binion's Horseshoe Casino Strike, the Solidarity March in Washington D.C., and the march to Los Angeles, California in support of Senate Bill 55. Materials contain photographic prints, photographic negatives, and a small number of slides.

Arrangement: The material within this subseries is in rough chronological order. Some folders have similar titles, but represent distinct sets created by the Culinary Union. Each distinct set of photographs are differentiated with an alphabetic label. These photographs could not be further identified and were kept in original order. Each file contains multiple images.

Internal: Social events, 1989-2005

Physical Description: 5.75 Linear Feet (6 boxes and 3 folders in OS box 34)

Scope and Contents Note: The Internal: Social events series contains Culinary Workers Union Local 226 photographs that document Culinary Union social events from 1989 to 2005. These events include various holiday parties, travel and tourist photographs from different events, baseball games the Culinary Union attended, and various banquets. Materials contain photographic prints, photographic negatives, and a small number of slides.

Arrangement: The material is arranged in a rough chronological order. Some folders have similar titles, but represent distinct sets created by the Culinary Union. Each distinct set of photographs are differentiated with an alphabetic label. These photographs could not be further identified and were kept in original order. Each file contains multiple images.
