Historical Background

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) Faculty Club was a social organization for faculty and staff intended to foster a sense of community and service on campus. The club's first president, LaVaun Joy Hendrix, also created and ran the UNLV Women's Club, which provided scholarships for women who attended UNLV.

Administrative Information

Access Note

Contents of this collection have not yet been reviewed for sensitive materials. Collection is open subject to review; documents containing personally identifiable information need to be removed prior to access by researchers. Where use copies do not exist, production of use copies is required before access will be granted; this may delay research requests. Advanced notice is required.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyrights and other rights. See Reproductions and Use on the UNLV Special Collections and Archives website for more information about reproductions and permissions to publish.

Acquisition Note

Materials were transferred to the University Archives; accession number 1994-048 and 1988-95. This set of records includes former record group number 4.5.1.

Processing Note

In 2019, as part of an archival backlog elimination project, Billy Marino rehoused the materials, wrote the finding aid, and entered the data into ArchivesSpace.
