Historical Note

The Office of the Vice President for Development and University Relations at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas was created in 1984. This collection contains materials from the three different offices under the university president before the Office of Vice President for Development and University Relations was created in 1984. These offices were the Vice President of Academic Affairs, the Vice President of Administration, and the Vice President of Business Affairs.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents Note

The records contain financial and budgetary information, correspondence, reports, University of Nevada, Las Vegas campus buildings and grounds planning, registrar and academic affairs information and memoranda created by the UNLV Office of the Vice President for Development and University Relations from 1967 to 1983. The records contain documentation primarily relating to administration, finances and budgets, University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) campus buildings and grounds, and registrar and academic affairs information. These records document the growth of UNLV and the way the University administration operated.
