Historical Background

---

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) was established in 1951 as an extension program of the University of Nevada, Reno. In 1954, the Nevada System of Higher Education Board of Regents established the Southern Regional Division of the University of Nevada, which was colloquially referred to as Nevada Southern University. In 1969, the school was officially renamed the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. UNLV has grown exponentially over the past five decades and is comprised of over a dozen colleges and three professional schools. As of 2020, UNLV has a total enrollment of over 30,000 undergraduate and graduate students.

Administrative Information

---

Access Note

Collection is open for research.

Publication Rights

Materials in this collection may be protected by copyrights and other rights. See Reproductions and Use on the UNLV Special Collections website for more information about reproductions and permissions to publish.

Acquisition Note

Materials were transferred periodically to the University Archives; accession number 2017-118.

Processing Note

Materials were processed by Mary Anilao and Joseph Puentes in 2020. They reboxed collection materials created an inventory. In 2020, Tammi Kim used the inventory and created a finding aid in ArchivesSpace.
